Is there any chance 1:30 would work instead? thanks

Sue

Hi All-

Joe and I just connected on this issue. I'd like to just have all parties – planning, OEWD, and RCP—chat about it together so we can finalize the schedule we want to put forward.

Do folks have time to talk on the phone after 3 PM Monday afternoon to settle this?

We have our standing 2-2:30 call but that doesn't work for Joe so if we can move that to a later time Monday I'm hopeful we can iron this out.

Thanks,

Ted

I thought we had discussed pushing these back, so that we could have more meetings when we have more info to discuss.

Something like:

March – Housing Pkg, Final DSG, MIP
April – EIR Update, CCSF
May – ??

As it is, we will not have much more information in January than we have now in December.

Subject: [EXT] Proposed 2020 CAC schedule

Hi all-

We are preparing for the 12/9 CAC meeting and one of the items will be a look forward at the winter and spring of 2020. We intend to lay out a proposed CAC schedule as part of this and wanted to confirm that this would work for you and most of the items will probably require developer presentation.

January – (1) benefits to City College (requested by the chair) and (2) detailed affordable housing package
February – discuss DSG in detail
May – thoughts on topic/format?

Sue and Seung Yen – please chime in if I've omitted anything.

Joe, Nora, Jonathan – any thoughts/ suggestions? One thing I'd be curious about is if you think the topics currently outlined for January should be pushed a bit further out – to March maybe?

Thanks,

Ted
