To Whom It May Concern:

With the advances we have in technology, can't the planning department hold this over a live streamed telecast online?

Some folks already receive MBA degrees online.

Dear Balboa Community Members,

We hope everyone stays healthy. Given the state of emergency, we have several updates:

- "Office hours" via phone: Unfortunately, buildings are shut down and we are not able to provide the "office hours" via phone initially scheduled for Tuesday, March 17th from 6-8 p.m.
- Planning Commission hearing: The commission hearing scheduled for Thursday, March 19th has been cancelled.

We keep looking into opportunities for public feedback in various formats in order to accommodate the widest array of people. Please stay tuned.

Meanwhile, the BRCAC email address (brcac@sfgov.org) is available at any time for written questions or comments, which we will respond to accordingly.

Thank you for your ongoing interest and participation in the Balboa Reservoir project.
