Hello Harry,

You are correct, the project will be heard by the SFPUC Commission before the Board.

In our presentation from December (link here) we outlined the anticipated approval schedule on the last slide. I've pasted that slide below and provided updated dates for you in red. Hope this helps. We plan to review the approvals process and schedule at the next CAC meeting as well.

Public hearings:

Planning Commission on EIR certification and project approval: May 2020 (tent. May 28)

SFPUC Commission: ~~FBD~~ June 2020

MTA Board: ~~FBD~~ June 2020

Board of Supervisors ultimate approval of Developer Agreement and attached documents: Summer 2020

Thanks, Leigh

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

I am unable to determine when the Balboa Reservoir project would have to come before the SFPUC. Maybe there are two occasions when this would be necessary. I assume that this would happen before the Project goes to the Board of Supervisors, whether that is to a Committee or the full Board. I hope you can help. (I am writing to you based on your role with the BRCAC.)

Thank you.
