Hello Harry,

Monday's presentation is attached for your reference. It will be posted to the CAC website soon along with the video recording. The full Board hearings have not yet been scheduled but I will update the CAC when they are.

Thanks, Leigh

I hope you can answer a couple more questions.

Will the recording of Monday's meeting be available soon, or does it only come in the transcript provided for the following meeting? I was hoping to review the date of the full Board of Supervisors meeting that would consider the Balboa Reservoir project, assuming that the ordinances and the sales agreement are approved by both Committees two weeks from now. I think I had it in mind that the CEQA appeal and the Board meeting would both take place starting at 2 p.m. on August 4, unless the CEQA-related session would be heard separately earlier in the day. But now I don't recall whether August 4 was a definite date for that meeting or merely a proposed date.

Thank you.
