Hi Amy,

Here is a blurb about the Balboa Draft EIR that you can distribute to your members, including the URL to the environmental planning webpage that will host the document. We will likely include a link from the CAC main page as well but the document itself will be posted at the URL listed below.

Jeanie Poling (copied here) is Planning's contact for the Draft EIR so feel free to contact her with any technical/logistical questions.

Thanks, Leigh

Hi Leigh--

I hope you are well.

For our members' meeting tomorrow, I wondered if you could tell me if the DEIR will be located on the Planning Dept CAC website. I just wanted to give people a heads-up about where they can find it when it is published.

Thank you-

Amy
